ABOUT THE EXPERIENCE

Into the Wild Heart of the Serengeti

Step into the wild heart of the Serengeti on an extraordinary 13-day journey led by world-renowned wildlife photographer Chris Fallows. Limited to just 8 guests, this intimate safari offers unrivalled photographic opportunities, immersive wildlife encounters, and expert guidance in one of nature's greatest theatres.

Stay in exquisite luxury at Asilia's renowned lodges, Usangu, Namiri, and Dunia. Each location offers a unique window into Tanzania's breathtaking landscapes, from vast plains to hidden wildlife-rich havens. Dunia, Africa's first female-run luxury camp, provides not only world-class comfort but also an inspiring story of empowerment and resilience.

Throughout the journey, Chris Fallows leads hands-on photography masterclasses, helping you hone your skills and capture the magic of the Serengeti through your lens. Focus your camera on majestic big cats, towering elephants, and herds of wildebeest as they traverse the savanna.

Whether you're an aspiring photographer or a seasoned enthusiast, this journey deepens your connection with Tanzania's untamed beauty while elevating your craft. With expert guides, intimate campfire evenings, and the chance to witness Africa's raw splendour, this is more than a safari. It's a story waiting to be captured.

“Chris is a once in a lifetime guide. His knowledge of wildlife behaviour meant we were always in the right place. I've done safaris before but nothing comes close to this level of access and intimacy.”

YOUR GUIDE

Chris Fallows

Chris Fallows is a renowned South African wildlife photographer and conservationist who has spent over 30 years capturing breathtaking images of the natural world. His groundbreaking work began in 1996 when he became the first to photograph a great white shark breaching near Seal Island, South Africa, a moment that has since become iconic.

Known as a pioneer in wildlife storytelling, Chris's work has been featured in over 60 international documentaries, including Planet Earth and Shark Week, as well as in more than 500 publications worldwide.

His philosophy underscores the responsibility of photographers to use their art to raise awareness and drive conservation, ensuring future generations can experience the wonders of the natural world.

THE SERENGETI

Big Cats & The Great Migration

In Tanzania's legendary Serengeti, the Great Migration is one of nature's greatest spectacles. As seasonal rains refresh the plains, more than two million wildebeest stream forward, joined by huge numbers of zebras and gazelles.

Lions rest on rocky kopjes, watching for the perfect moment, while leopards wait patiently in the branches of acacia trees. Cheetahs glide across the grasslands, exploding into breathtaking sprints when the chance appears.

The arrival of the herds transforms the plains into a vivid, moving picture. Great clouds of dust rise as thousands flow forward, river crossings become dramatic scenes of courage and chaos. Big cats move through the throng, their golden coats standing out sharply against the swirling dust and golden grass.

FAQ

Everything You Need to Know

Do I need photography experience?

Not at all. Chris caters to all levels, from smartphone shooters to professional photographers. You'll learn techniques that transform your images regardless of your starting point.

What camera gear should I bring?

Chris will provide a recommended gear list after booking. A camera with a telephoto lens (200-400mm range) is ideal, but not essential. Many guests shoot on smaller mirrorless cameras or even phones.

How do I get to Kilimanjaro?

Fly into Kilimanjaro International Airport (JRO). Common routes via Doha, Dubai, Nairobi, or Addis Ababa. Our team will help coordinate your travel once booked.

Do I need vaccinations?

Yellow fever vaccination is recommended and may be required depending on your country of origin. Consult your travel doctor for malaria prophylaxis and other recommendations.

How physically demanding is the trip?

Not demanding at all. Most game drives are from comfortable vehicles. Walking is minimal and on flat terrain around the camps.

Are private or custom departures available?

Yes. We offer both scheduled group departures and fully private expeditions. Contact us at paul@airguides.com for options.
